Fine Wines - White

Top end wines and small parcels that we mark up very reasonably – some real bargains.

Grattamacco Bianco 2018 Bolgheri Italy – 69.00

A pure Vermentino from the house that makes one of the best super Tuscan Reds. The characteristic hints of citrus open the aromatic notes, which later evolves into notes of yellow peach, with hints of mint and sage. Creamy and sweet through the well measured use of oak. Good length and clean finish.

Montagny 1er Cru Vieux Château, 2018

Laurent Cognard – 73.00

Only subtle notions of pear, moss and yeast appear on the nose of this wine. The palate adds vivid freshness plus concentrated pear flesh, subtle lemon and textured yeast. Real elegance speaks in the aromatic, lemony finesse and the bright, textured and chalky finish

Chateaneuf du Pape 2020

Domaine Bois de Boursan – 75.00

A blend of clairette, white Grenache, Roussanne, and bourboulanc. This wine has a lovely balance, with aromas of white flowers, pear, and lemon

Sancerre 2018 'Le Chene Marchand' Crochet – 75.00

Straight out of the bottle it's polished and exhibits a complex range of aristocratic mineral notes, friendly but taut citrus and white stone fruits, sweet herbs, fresh grasses with an immense amount of purity and laser-sharp focus

Riesling, Grand Cru 2015 Joms Meyer, Alsace – 85.00

This is intense, supremely aromatic, straight as an arrow and very concentrated. The finish is bold and dry with a long zesty echo. Gorgeous now.

Meursault 2018 Thierry & Pascale Matrot – 87.00

This is concentrated, rich, almost medium to full-bodied Meursault with exotic notes of lemon curd, toasted hazelnuts, crushed stone, and white flowers.

Red Shoulder, Chardonnay 2018 Shafer,

Napa Valley USA – 88.00

The 2018 offers up an enticing array of exotic, citrus and stone fruits on the nose and palate, beautifully balanced by refreshing acidity.

Puligny-Montrachet, Les Reuchaux, 2018

Boyer-Martenot – 89.00

2018 was an absolute classic vintage for white Burgundy. The wines have excellent balance and harmony underpinned by beautiful minerality – nothing overblown

Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Morgeot, 2018

Fontaine-Gagnard – 94.00

The world-wide demand for top white Burgundy knows no bounds, but one can still find small pockets of excellent Chassagne and here is our pick – classic and peerless

Hermitage Blanc 2017 Domaine du Colombier – 99.00

This is a blend of Roussanne, Marsanne and shows all the subtlety and finesse of great Rhone whites. Notes of ripe melon combined with orange marmalade and adds an attractive hint of scorched citrus zest. Silky texture and a long finish

Batard-Montrachet Grand Cru 2018

Gagnard - Delagrange – 195.00

This is luscious and quite forward. Heady and hedonistic, this is terrific fun but is also keeping a little bit in reserve. A lifted bouquet of butterscotch and candied peel is offset by a modicum of pebbly, fruit-stone rigour on the finish. This is traditional Burgundy at its very best and represents quite amazing value.

Fine Wines - Red

Top end wines and small parcels that we mark up very reasonably – some real bargains.

Savigny-lès-Beaune 1er Cru Aux Clous, 2017 Louis Chenu Père et Filles – 72.00

Fragrances of violets and red fruit with overtones of autumnal wet earth, supple, of whispering delicacy yet haunting aromatic richness. Delicious now

Chateau Laforge Grand Cru 2015 St Emillion – 89.00
Mineral purity and cool black and blue fruits lead the pure silk texture. This wine is all about polished style and weighty mouthfeel, the signatures of owner Jonathan Maltus

Brunello di Montalcino 2015 Castello Romitorio – 88.00
100% Sangiovese. The 2015 Brunello di Montalcino is rich and intense both in terms of appearance and bouquet. Aromas peel back with delicate layers of dark fruit, pressed rose petal, baking spice and grilled herb.

Volnay 1er Cru Les Frémiets, 2013 Joseph Voillot – 90.00
A truly superb wine and one of the very finest reds in the Côte de Beaune for the vintage. Absolutely sensational, with extraordinary texture of rich dark wild berried fruits.

Othello 2013 Napa Valley USA – 89.00

This is a remarkably classy third wine from Christian Moueix's Dominus Estate. Refined Napa Cabernet notes mingle with minerals and a cool streak of dark chocolate and cherry – the package and charm is all Napa, but the winemaking feels traditionally old world as richness meets refreshment

Mas Jullien 2012 Terrasses du Larzac – 101.00

From one of two internationally recognised Languedoc producers. Lots of small black fruits, smoke, pepper and hints of leather, it's medium to full-bodied, textured and elegant, with a great mid-palate. 95points Robert Parker

Château Lafon-Rochet, 4^{ème} Cru Classé 1996 Saint-Estèphe – 116.00

Dark purple colour, almost black. Very earthy too with an edge of mineral scents and a deeply hued set of aromas. Massive wine. Huge concentration of dense, brooding fruit Very serious and structured. Excellent

Chateau Leoville Barton 2004 Saint Julien – 132.00

The 2004 is a classic Cabernet-dominated blend that offers tremendously alluring fruit blossom aromas. The palate suggests flavours of crushed blackcurrant and cherry fruit, fastened by a core of fine ripe tannins, finishing on elegance and finesse.

Château Haut-Batailley Cru Classé, 2000 Pauillac – 132.00

Its deep ruby-purple colour accompanies notes of raspberry, mineral, blackcurrant and tobacco that literally spring from the glass, announcing a seductive, velvety ensemble, whose abundant fruitiness & low in acidity play into its tannins. Parker – 93points

Beaucastel 2015 Chateaneuf Du Pape, Perrin – 135.00

The 2015 Beaucastel underlines why this wine is so great. Sporting a deep ruby color and terrific notes of blackberries, ground herbs, pepper and Provençal spice, this wine shows the more forward, charming nature of the vintage and is medium to full-bodied, pure and balanced

Gevrey-Chambertin 1^{er} Cru Les Corbeaux, 2012 Bruno Clavelier – 150.00

The palate shows medium body with red fruits, earth, mineral and all spice. This is not a wine of power but rather, one of balance and intrigue. Very enjoyable
